BLT Architects Announces Sponsorship of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) Spring Meeting 2016

February 3, 2016 (Philadelphia) – BLT Architects (BLTa) announced today that it will sponsor the ULI Spring Meeting 2016, an annual gathering held exclusively for ULI Full Members that features world-class speakers and facilitated, town hall-style discussions with ULI's most engaged and distinguished members. The event will be held from April 19–21, 2016 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center in Philadelphia.

The conference consists of decision-makers from every sector of the real estate industry around the world, including developers, investors and architects. You can see the full schedule and list of speakers on ULI's website.

“We’re thrilled that the ULI Spring Meeting is going to be held in Philadelphia,” said Michael Ytterberg, Principal of BLTa. “The city is currently undergoing an unprecedented and exciting evolution, and the development of its buildings has reflected this. We’re proud to support the event through our sponsorship and participation.”

The Urban Land Institute is a global nonprofit education and research institute supported by its members. Its mission is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in sustaining and creating thriving communities worldwide. Established in 1936, the Institute has more than 36,000 members worldwide, representing the entire spectrum of land use and real estate development disciplines working in private enterprise and public service.
